Practice profile

Ms. Lilia Klochenko is an independent international arbitrator with over three decades of extensive experience across a broad range of legal matters for wide array of industries, including insurance and reinsurance, banking and finance, transport and logistics, building and operation of sea vessels and other shipping and maritime businesses, construction and infrastructure, oil, gas and natural resources, aviation and aircraft industry, metallurgy and mining, telecommunication and IT, travel and hosting and more other.

Ms. Klochenko has been leading her private international law practice over two decades and also collaborated as co-counsel, advisor or expert along with leading legal and/or arbitration teams from Germany, Austria, United Kingdom, France, USA.

Ms. Klochenko has sat as arbitrator in international commercial arbitrations across wide range of sectors and legal systems since 2010; and since 2026,

Ms. Klochenko is UAE and Austria based international arbitrator in independent practice.

Focusing exclusively on arbitration now, she brings to dispute resolution a diverse and deep background, including structuring and supporting transactions, advising on major investment projects across various industries, drafting and supporting the execution of international contracts, developing early warning and risk management systems, including legal risks, early conflict forecasting, and managing dispute resolution processes.

Ms. Klochenko has sat as arbitrator, including as presiding arbitrator, co-arbitrator and sole arbitrator, under the Rules of the ICC, DIS, VIAC, ICAC (MKAS), MAC, RAC, UNCITRAL and other Rules; as well as in ad hoc proceedings. Her appointments include experience in proceedings requiring active procedural management and high procedural discipline within compressed timelines or complex procedural matters, including multiplicities in arbitration.

Being civil law qualified lawyer, Ms. Klochenko is familiarized with common law as well as Islamic finance and principles of Shari'ah.

Being business oriented from her previous lawyer's approach, having deep understanding of cultural tenses and backgrounds as well as being hardworking, highly disciplined, accomplished and dedicated person, Ms. Klochenko provides into the dispute resolution ecosystem the extensive experience from her private legal practice and over a decade and a half of experience as arbitrator across multiple jurisdictions, legal systems, languages and cultural backgrounds. This composition provides practical benefits into the conduct and management of complex proceedings, evidentiary assessment, and decision-making in international disputes in the style of "international arbitration", which means with a view to a prompt, efficient determination of the dispute with case-by-case adapted proceedings, including discovery or lengthy hearings.

Ms. Klochenko is an author of numerous law-matters-related and arbitration-related books and publications. She teaches courses on international arbitration, is a frequent speaker at arbitration events and trainer for specially developed training courses in various matters of law.

Since 2017, as a member of independent NGO observers, Ms. Klochenko participates in the work of Working Group II "Arbitration and Conciliation" and Working Group III "Settlement of Disputes between Investors and States" of UNCITRAL.
